General Fraud Statement

(Not applicable in Colorado, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Utah and Vermont)

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or another person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects the person to criminal and (NY: substantial) civil penalties. In the District of Columbia, Louisiana, Maine, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington, insurance benefits may also be denied.

The applicant hereby applied to the Company for a policy of insurance as set forth in this application on the basis of statements contained herein. Applicant agrees that such policy shall be null and void if such information is materially false or misleading so that the Company would have rejected the risk, prior to inception. Applicant understands that an inquiry may be made which will provide applicable information concerning character, general reputation, financial stability and other pertinent financial data, personal characteristics, mode of living or other background information the company deems necessary in order to determine whether the Company will accept or reject Applicant for coverage. Upon written request, additional information as to the nature and scope of the inquiry, if one is made, will be provided. The Applicant understands this application is a request for quotation and no information provided herein shall be construed by either party as creating a binding contract for insurance.
