

News Release

July 1, 2014

For Immediate Release:

For further information contact:

Transportation Risk Services, LLC.

Alan Toth

President & Chief Executive Officer

Barrington, Illinois

Telephone: 847.387.6545

atoth@trservicesllc.com

Joya Sobolewski Promoted to Assistant Vice President

Barrington, IL, July 01, 2014 – Transportation Risk Services (TRS), a leading insurance transportation MGA and wholesale broker, announced today the promotion of Joya Sobolewski to Assistant Vice President.

Transportation Risk Services (TRS) is proud to announce the promotion of Joya Sobolewski to Assistant Vice President. In her new role at TRS, Joya will manage the National Marketing of all Occupational Accident programs. “Joya is instrumental in helping producers develop and/or place existing Occupational Accident programs,” says Alan Toth, President/CEO. Joya has held multiple roles throughout TRS since 2003.

Transportation Risk Services (www.trservices.com) is a leading transportation MGA and wholesale broker serving client’s countrywide. TRS specializes in the placement of local, intermediate, long-haul and public automobile risks for retail insurance agents and brokers through its program and broking facilities. Located in Barrington, IL, TRS offers a broad range of solutions that includes, but not limited to, Auto Liability, General Liability, Physical Damage, Cargo, Garage, Contractor’s Equipment, Warehouse Legal Liability, Umbrella, Workmen’s Compensation and Occupational Accident/Contingent Liability.