Transportation Risk Services Hires Chris Fisher to Drive Expansion Efforts

Barrington, IL, July 21, 2020 – Transportation Risk Services (TRS), a leading insurance transportation MGA and wholesale broker, announced today the hiring of Chris Fisher as Vice President.

“With more than 15 years of sale, product and distribution management in the insurance arena, Chris is a talented and well-respected insurance leader. Chris’ depth of retail agency relationships and insurance sale acumen will be essential as we continue to expand our transportation reach in key markets including but not limited to Midwest and Southeast.” Said Alan Toth, CEO of Transportation Risk Services.

“Joining the TRS team excites me. The group’s exclusive committed to the transportation sector is a huge differentiator. This will enable me to partner with key retailers in target geographies who value dedicated truck and transportation expertise and deliver meaningful transportation solutions – which is essential given the state of the hard market.” Said Chris Fisher, Vice President. I am joining TRS to advance their expansion efforts to become one of the most valued and sought-after providers of transportation solutions in markets we want to grow in.”

We are proud to announce the hiring of Chris Fisher. Bringing Chris on board reinforces our strategic plan to expand and reinvest in our platform at a critical time in the industry. Chris’ experience, extensive retail connections and drive is the perfect fit for TRS.” Says Alan Toth, President.
